How to use

ART & CRAFT
ACADEMY

1 Top card: trace with arrows. Start at the green number.

Green means go, red means stop.

2 Bottom card: trace it on the dots, no arrows.

3 Then write it yourself from the green dots.

a Pink letters are vowels (a e i o u), blue are consonants.

Color the star, then wipe and try again!

For grown-ups

ART & CRAFT
ACADEMY1 Print on A4, cut on the middle line to get two A5 sheets. Laminate or use a sheet protector.2 Use a dry-erase marker.
Wipe with a tissue and try again.3 Keep it short:
2-3 letters a day is plenty.4 Start with the letters in your child's name.5 Praise the effort,
not perfect lines.More free printables:

Set up the space

ART & CRAFT
ACADEMY

- 1 A fixed, calm spot: a table and chair at your child's size, good light, no screens nearby.
- 2 Everything in reach: marker and cloth in a small tray, so your child can fetch it and tidy up alone.
- 3 Less is more: one or two letters per session, starting with the letters of your child's name.
- 4 Freedom within limits: let your child choose the letter or the color. The only rule: follow the arrows.
- 5 Show more, talk less: draw the stroke once, slowly, then step back and let your child try.

Tools & set-up

ART & CRAFT

- 1 A4 paper and a home printer. Print at 100% (Actual size), not “Fit to page”.
- 2 A wipe-clean marker (medium tip) and a soft cloth or tissue.
- 3 A laminating pouch or a clear sleeve, so each page can be written on and wiped many times.
- 4 Optional: yarn, sand or clay — make the letter with your hands, too.

If your child won't continue?

ART & CRAFT
ACADEMY

- 1 Drop the pressure: refusing is a message, not bad behaviour.
- 2 Check the body: is your child tired, hungry or sleepy? Is the marker hard to hold?
- 3 Make the step smaller: trace with a finger instead of the marker, or switch to an easier letter (I, L, O, T).
- 4 Change the feel: trace the letter in sand or on a tray, or build it from yarn or clay.
- 5 End on a good note: stop after 5–10 minutes and praise the effort.

If refusing goes on for weeks, or holding the marker is very hard: ask a specialist.

What your child will learn

ART & CRAFT
ACADEMY

- 1 Goal: know every capital and small letter, its name and its sound.
- 2 Writing path: where to start, which way to go and in what order to draw each line.
- 3 Skills: pencil control · hand-eye coordination · left-to-right writing · matching letters to beginning sounds.
- 4 Age: preschool and kindergarten children who are starting to write letters.
- 5 Fun fact: English has 26 letters: 5 vowels (a, e, i, o, u) and 21 consonants. Let's count them together!

How to present the letter

ART & CRAFT
ACADEMY

- 1 Pick a letter. Say its name and its sound clearly.
- 2 Show the page and the picture word (A... apple).
- 3 Finger first: trace the big letter from circle 1, following the arrows.
- 4 Then marker: same path, stopping at each numbered circle.
- 5 Dots and faint letters: trace over them with the marker.
- 6 Write alone in the empty row.
- 7 Play section 3: find the pictures that start with the letter, color a star, and praise the effort, not perfect writing.

Warm-up before writing

ART & CRAFT
ACADEMY

- 1 Dough and squeezing: squeeze, roll and pinch dough to wake up the hand muscles.
- 2 Sand or fine salt: draw straight and curvy lines with a finger.
- 3 In the air: draw the letter with a big arm movement while saying its name.
- 4 Pick and place: move small beads or pom-poms with tweezers or two fingers.
- 5 Short: one or two minutes, then move to the page.

Goal: a relaxed hand before the marker.

Talk about it

ART & CRAFT
ACADEMY

- 1 What does this letter look like? (b = a bat and a ball; l = a stick)
- 2 Where do we start: top or bottom? Which way do we go?
- 3 How many lines or curves does it need? Is there a dot?
- 4 What word starts with the same sound?
- 5 b · d · p · q look alike: what is different between them?
- 6 Can you write it in the air first? Which part was the hardest?

The letter here stands alone; its shape can change a little inside a word.
